Be part of Canada's 2026 Predictive Maintenance Event of the Year!

Dear Predictive Maintenance Service,
Technology & Training Supplier,

The forthcoming CMVA ANNUAL TECHNICAL CONFERENCE will be held on October 21 & 22, 2026, at NAIT in Edmonton. It will be preceded with 2 days training on various topics.

2026 Exhibitor Booth Policy

The fee for booking an exhibitor booth includes the registration of one booth attendant who may also attend:

- the Annual General Meeting
- the Exhibitor's Happy Hour Event

All extra booth attendants and/or exhibitors must register individually.

IMPORTANT: Booths cannot be teared down before 4 PM on Thursday October 22

You will find in this document all relevant information for your registration, as well as the plan for the booth location. If you wish a double booth, please contact us.

The plan will be updated on our website as booths are booked. Do not wait if you want a particular booth location. Booths are permanently assigned upon receipt of payment.

To pay for booth & registration, please visit our website store in the ATC section.

To indicate your booth location preference, or if you have any question, please contact :

TRAINING, NETWORKING & TECHNOLOGY FOR INDUSTRY

You work hard to present your products and services in the best possible way, during the 2 days of the event. You collect valuable contact information from the event attendees in order to continue your business relationships.

Exhibitors' Happy Hour

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 21ST, FROM 5 TO 7 PM

Trade Show Hall

Refreshments and appetizers will be served. On this occasion, there will be animation and possibility for participants to win a participation prize. Entrance to the Happy Hour is free for all participants registered for the event. Only registered participants can attend.

Trade Show prize draw sponsored by an exhibitor: value $ 500 minimum

Drawn among participants who agreed at registration to allow CMVA to disclose their coordinates to the Trade Show exhibitors.

CMVA prize draw: value of $400

From the event revenues, the CMVA will use this amount to draw this prize among all registered participants of the 2026.

Networking event

Be part of a festive evening that will allow participants to chat and interact in a relaxed atmosphere!

Places are limited and tickets go fast!

Campio Ritchie, located in Edmonton's vibrant Ritchie neighbourhood, blends Alberta hospitality with craft beer, great food, and a welcoming atmosphere. You will spend a memorable evening in this lively space in the company of fellow vibration and condition monitoring maintenance professionals.

Upon arrival, you will be greeted by friendly bartenders offering a drink of your choice among local beers, cider, wine, or a crafted cocktail. A hearty meal will follow, with options designed to satisfy both meat lovers and vegetarians. To finish, dessert, tea, and coffee will be offered.

There will be a bus to transfer people from the HAPPY HOUR event at the conference to the NETWORKING EVENT at Campio Ritchie. The event concludes at 11 p.m. Visit their website to whet your appetite. A cash bar will also be available on site.
